

SLAYS PUGILIST HE SAYS SOUGHT TO HOLD HIM UP

Michael Kearns, a brother-in-law of "Red" Kearns, the pugilist, was killed early today at Fifth Avenue and Fifth Street, Brooklyn, by Charles Youngbauer, proprietor of a saloon at Fifth Avenue and Third Street, Youngbauer is under arrest and the police are seeking two unnamed men who were with Kearns.

The police have no details of the killing except those given by Youngbauer to Heiden L. Wilson, Assistant District Attorney for Kings County, several witnesses who heard two revolver shots. Detective John J. Fennell and other policemen found Youngbauer in his saloon hiding some time after the affair. He did not explain why he had run away from the scene of the encounter, or why he was hiding.

Kearns has some reputation as a fighter and had engaged in ring contests under the name of "Butty" Kearns. He was an ironworker by trade.

"Kearns had been hanging around the saloon for two weeks," said Youngbauer to Mr. Wilson. "He was out of work and had run up a large bill for drinks. He came in last night about 8 o'clock and demanded more drinks. I wouldn't sell him any more and he hit me. Then he went away saying he would come back and get me."

"I closed up at 1 o'clock and started to my home at No. 416 Beach Street, Richmond Hill. When I got to Fifth Avenue and Fifth Street, Kearns and two other men stopped me. He grabbed my watch chain and broke it in two. Then he demanded that I give him all my money. I shot him and ran."

Youngbauer declared Kearns held him up two years ago and took $700 from him.

Margarita Pearls

It isn't safe to assume because a woman wears pearls that they are real.

When it is possible to buy Margarita Pearls for a fraction of the cost of the real gems it is folly to tempt fate in the public display of the genuine articles.

So closely do Margarita Pearls simulate the real pearls that one must be something of an expert to tell the difference.

Let us show you strings of Margaritas. Their beauty will charm and their prices will surprise you. Graduated Necklaces in 6 sizes from $14.89 to $49.75.

New Wilton Rugs

From Overseas

New Colorings Exclusive Designs

When our Rug Buyer was abroad last year making his usual purchases of Fall Floor Coverings he found the mills ready and willing to co-operate in producing a line of rugs whose beautiful designs and patterns would be found only at Macy's. In this search for the exclusive an amazing number of novel patterns were created. Ideas were borrowed from the French Renaissance and the Empire, from the designs of the Egyptians and the Assyrians, from the Japanese and the Chinese, and wonderful effects in Rug Art were evolved. The colorings include black and gray, lavender and gray, mulberry and gray, pink, rose, blue, tan and other shades, made with imported dyes. The prices are remarkably low considering the excellent quality.
